DELEGATE'S REPORT

2022 Grand American:

Weather was beautiful again this year.

Attendance was similar to the prior year.

Visiting the Trapshooting Hall of Fame should be on every shooter's bucket list.

Joe Sissano, New Jersey, was reelected as the Eastern Zone VP.

ATA Business:

The ATA's financial condition remains very solid.

The AIM program continues to grow.

SOS Clays has entered the shoot software market and provides a credible alternative to the 3S product. It was developed by Greg Pink and was used around the country for many 2022 shoots. The software is cloud based which makes an internet connection necessary for the host club. Cost will not require additional fees to be charged by the host club at this time. Pre-squadding will continue to be done by 3S software until SOS introduces its pre-squadding module.

Phil Wright was elected to the Accountable Plan Advisory Committee as the Eastern Zone representative and serves as its chairman.

AIM4NH REPORT

Missy Riley reported that the Barrels and Badges event will again be held in 2023 at Cheshire Fish and Game. Representatives from the AIM4NH program participated in a couple local sportsman's shows. Cheshire Fish and Game and 20th Skeet and Clays are currently hosting AIM4NH shooting.

STATE TEAM

The State Team for 2023 was announced with 18 qualifying. Buckles and certificates will be awarded at the July meeting.

OLD BUSINESS

None

NEW BUSINESS

The date for the 2023 State Shoot was set for July 28-30, 2023 at Minute Man Sportsman's Club.

Steve Grady volunteered to organize a raffle to be held at the state shoot.

Eddie Page will again handle the trophies for the state shoot.

It was announced that Pelham Fish and Game's current administration is more supportive of clay target shooting. Despite this shift in attitude it does not appear that the club is interesting in hosting ATA registered tournaments any time soon.

Jason Green reported on the NHTA website. He stated that in order to keep the website fresh new content needs to be provided. New features in the planning stage are a business directory and photos of members.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

There were no additional nominations beyond those made by the Nominating Committee. There being no further nominations, the President directed the Secretary to cast one vote for the slate.
